Invitation

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, we are pleased to invite you to the 16th Young Scientist Seminar (YSS) in Yamaguchi, Japan. This seminar will be held on 12th – 13th Oct 2019. The YSS aims to establish international network among young researchers including students, to broaden their knowledge about recent developments in scientific field around the world.

Venue

The 16th YSS will be held at the Yamaguchi-ken Seminar Park, Yamaguchi, Japan. This is a prefectural facility to provide a wonderful environment to meet with colleagues in a relaxing atmosphere.

Yamaguchi prefecture is located in the westernmost tip of Honshu island, the 2nd most populous island in the world. Because of its geographical location and ocean current, it has long had cultural exchanges together ASEAN areas.

In addition, Yamaguchi Prefecture has become the stage of the turning point which makes a big change in the history of Japan many times. Yamaguchi city is situated in the center of the prefecture. It has been long called “Kyoto of the West” due to its cultural similarities with Kyoto, the capital of Japan in the 14th century.

The temperature in October ranges from 12°C in the morning to 23°C in the afternoon.
